35. Section 1708, "Burden of Proof - Appeals," subsection (1) is modified to read as follows:

(1) The burden of proof shall be upon the people, and the court shall enter judgment in favor of the defendant unless the people prove the elements of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt.

D. Application: This section and the Code adopted herein shall apply to every street, alley, sidewalk area, driveway, park, and to every other public way or public place or public parking area, either within or outside the corporate limits of this Municipality, the use of which this Municipality has jurisdiction and authority to regulate. The provisions of sections 1401, 1402, 1413, and part 16 of the adopted Model Traffic Code, respectively concerning reckless driving, careless driving, eluding a police officer, and accidents and accident reports shall apply not only to public places and ways but also throughout this Municipality.

6-1-2: DELETIONS, MODIFICATIONS AND ADDITIONS:

(Rep. by Ord. 332, 1-3-2006)

6-1-3: INTERPRETATION:

This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to conform with the State's uniform system for the regulation of vehicles and traffic. Article and section headings of the chapter and adopted Model Traffic Code shall not be deemed to govern, limit, modify or in any manner affect the scope, meaning or extent of the provisions of any article or section thereof.

6-1-4: TRIALS:

A. Right To Trial By Jury: Any person charged with a violation of any offense specified in subsection 6-1-6D of this chapter conviction of which carries the possibility of imprisonment, shall be entitled to trial by jury upon such charge in accordance with applicable statutes and the Colorado Municipal Court Rules of Procedure.

B. No Trial By Jury: Trial by jury shall not be available for any other violation of this chapter or of the Model Traffic Code for Colorado municipalities as adopted by this chapter.

~~6-1-5: COMPULSORY INSURANCE:~~

~~A. Owner Responsibility: No owner of a motor vehicle required to be registered in this State shall operate the vehicle or permit it to be operated on a public street or highway within the Town when such owner has failed to have a complying policy or certificate of~~

~~self insurance in full force and effect as required by Colorado Revised Statutes sections 10-4-705 and 10-4-716.~~

~~B. Operator Responsibility: No person shall operate a motor vehicle on a public street or highway of this Town without a complying policy or certificate of self insurance in full force and effect as required by Colorado Revised Statutes sections 10-4-705 and 10-4-716.~~

~~C. Financial Responsibility: When an accident occurs, or when requested to do so following any lawful traffic contact or during any traffic investigation by a police officer, no owner or operator of a motor vehicle shall fail to present to the requesting officer immediate evidence of a complying policy or certificate of self insurance in full force and effect as required by Colorado Revised Statutes sections 10-4-705 and 10-4-716.~~

~~D. Penalty Provisions:~~

~~1. Any person who violates the provisions of subsection A, B, or C of this section, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00), and in addition, the court may impose imprisonment for not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days. The minimum fine imposed by this subsection shall be mandatory, and the court shall not suspend said fine, in whole or in part, unless it is established, at or before the time of sentencing, that appropriate insurance as required under Colorado Revised Statutes sections 10-4-705 and 10-4-716 has been obtained.~~

~~2. Upon a second or subsequent conviction under this section within a period of two (2) years following a prior conviction under this section, the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) nor more than three hundred ninety nine dollars ($399.00), and, in addition, the court may impose imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days. The minimum fine imposed by this subsection shall be mandatory, and the court shall not suspend said fine, in whole or in part, unless it is established, at or before the time of sentencing, that appropriate insurance as required under Colorado Revised Statutes sections 10-4-705 and 10-4-716, has been obtained.~~

~~E. Prima Facie Evidence: Testimony of the failure of any owner or operator of a motor vehicle to present immediate evidence of a complying policy or certificate of self insurance in full force and effect as required by Colorado Revised Statutes sections 10-4-705 and 10-4-716, when requested to do so by a police officer, shall constitute prima facie evidence, at a trial concerning a violation charged under subsection A or B of this section, that such owner or operator of a motor vehicle violated subsection A or B of this section.~~

~~F. Proof Of Insurance: No person charged with violating subsection A, B, or C of this section shall be convicted if he produces in court a bona fide complying policy or certificate of self insurance which was in full force and effect, as required by Colorado Revised Statutes sections 10-4-705 and 10-4-716 at the time of the alleged violation.
(Ord. 255, 5-2-1995)~~

6-1-6: VIOLATIONS; PENALTIES:

A. It shall be unlawful to violate any provision of this chapter or any provision of the model traffic code for Colorado municipalities, as adopted or amended by this chapter. Such violations are traffic infractions and are hereby deemed civil matters, except those violations stated in subsection D of this section.

B. Traffic infractions as provided in this code shall be subject to the following penalties:

Minimum penalty: Fine of ten dollars ($10.00).

Maximum penalty: Fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

Court costs as authorized by state law shall be added to the fine.

C. The municipal court may, by order, establish a schedule of fines for violations and provide for payment through the clerk of the court or violations bureau, or by mail. The presiding municipal judge shall at least annually review the schedule of designated civil penalties of this traffic code and adopt on or before January 15 of each year a schedule of designated civil penalties for the municipal court, provided that failure to so annually adopt such a schedule of designated civil penalties shall not invalidate any such schedule previously adopted.

D. A violation of any of the following provisions of the model traffic code for Colorado municipalities, as adopted and amended by the town, shall be a criminal traffic offense punishable by a fine or by imprisonment or by both as specified in section 1-4-1 of this code.

1. Section 1101, speed limits, but only when the speed alleged is twenty ~~five~~^{four} (25) miles per hour or more over the posted speed;
2. Section 1105, speed contests;
3. Section 1401, reckless driving;
4. Section 1402, careless driving;
5. Section 1409, compulsory insurance;
6. Section 1413, eluding or attempting to elude a police officer; and
7. Section 1903, school buses - stops - signs - passing.

E. In the event that a defendant is charged with more than one traffic offense arising out of the same incident and at least one of the charged offenses is listed in subsection D of this section, the defendant shall have the right to demand a trial by jury as to all such offenses, which shall be consolidated for purposes of trial.

~~6-1-7: POINT REDUCTIONS; PLEA AGREEMENTS:~~

~~A. If a person receives a penalty assessment notice or summons and complaint pursuant to section 1701 of the Model Traffic Code for a violation for which points may be assessed against the person's driver's license pursuant to Colorado Revised Statutes 42-2-127(5), and such person pays the fine before the date payment is due, the points assessed for the violation are reduced as follows:~~

~~1. For a violation having an assessment of three (3) or more points under Colorado Revised Statutes 42-2-127(5), the points are reduced by two (2) points.~~

~~2. For a violation having an assessment of two (2) points under Colorado Revised Statutes 42-2-127(5), the points are reduced by one point.~~

~~B. Where it appears that the efficient administration of justice will be served, the Municipal Court prosecuting attorney may agree to plea agreements notwithstanding subsection A of this section.~~

~~C. The Chief of Police shall ensure adequate notice of subsections A1 and A2 of this section appears on each penalty assessment notice issued by his department. (Ord. 331, 12-27-2005)~~

6-1-8: FAILURE TO APPEAR:

If a person receives a summons and complaint or penalty assessment notice for a violation of the Model Traffic Code, or any Town ordinance, and such person fails to pay the fine and surcharge for the violation on or before the date specified on the summons or notice and subsequently fails to appear in person or by counsel before the Municipal Court for the return date thereon, the Municipal Court may:

A. Enter a default judgment against a defendant charged with a traffic infraction offense, except those listed at subsection 6-1-6D of this chapter, and assess the fine, court costs and any surcharge, if applicable. The amount of the judgment shall be the appropriate penalty which would be assessed after a finding of guilt or liability, plus costs and other court fees regularly imposed for Municipal violations after a finding of guilt; and

B. Direct the Clerk of the Court to provide the defendant with written notice the judgment was entered and the amount thereof, together with a notice that if a defendant does not appear within fifteen (15) days from the date set forth on the notice, the court shall submit a transcript of record containing the conviction and assessment of points to the Motor Vehicle Division of the State Department of Revenue pursuant to rule 255(b) of the Colorado Rules of Municipal Court Procedure.

Any person receiving a summons and complaint for a violation of the Model Traffic Code or any Town ordinance (as opposed to penalty assessment notice), must appear before the Municipal Court and may not resolve the matter without such appearance.

6-1-9: CIVIL INFRACTIONS:

Notwithstanding any provision contained in this chapter, all violations of any provision of the ordinances of the Town, including codes adopted by reference, for which a fine only is established as a penalty for the violation thereof, shall constitute a civil matter and not a criminal violation. Civil infractions shall be tried only to the Municipal Judge. In such cases, defendants shall have no right to a jury trial.

6-1-10: IMPOSITION OF COURT COSTS:

The Municipal Court is empowered to assess the following costs against any defendant who is found guilty of violating any provision of the Town's ordinances, or who pleads guilty or no contest to any such violation, or against any defendant against whom judgment is entered pursuant to section 6-1-8 of this chapter, or who is granted a deferred prosecution or deferred judgment. The Municipal Court may in its discretion increase, decrease, or waive any of the following fees and costs in any individual case when deemed reasonable and just:

A. Court Costs: Court costs of thirty dollars ($30.00) shall be assessed against every defendant who enters a plea of guilty, admission of liability, or no contest to any ordinance violation before the court, or who fails to appear for a scheduled trial; court costs of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be assessed against every defendant who is found guilty after a trial in the Municipal Court for any ordinance violation;

B. Witness Fees: A witness fee of five dollars ($5.00) per witness per day or part of a day in which the witness is actually in court, up to a maximum of fifty dollars ($50.00) plus mileage to reflect the current Federal mileage allowance for each mile actually and necessarily traveled from the witness's residence to the court shall be assessed, but no Town officer or employee may receive such witness fee. A witness fee of five dollars ($5.00) per appearing witness shall be assessed against any defendant who fails to appear for a scheduled trial;

C. Late Fee Or Time Payment Fee: A twenty five dollar ($25.00) late fee shall be added for any payment which is not made within the time allowed by the court. ~~A twenty five dollar ($25.00) time payment fee may be added for any payment for which the court, in its discretion, grants a stay of execution;~~

D. Insufficient Funds Fee: As provided in Colorado Revised Statutes 13-32-104(2), a thirty dollar ($30.00) fee shall be added for any payment of court fees and costs paid by a check returned for insufficient funds;

E. Other Costs: Restitution or other costs may be assessed as deemed appropriate by the court; and

F. Collection Of Fines: The Municipal Court Judge, Town Clerk or Town Administrator are authorized to use any lawful method of collecting fines, fees, default judgments, personal recognizance bond forfeitures, and civil penalties due from any person assessed such sums by the Municipal Court, including reasonable costs of collection. The Town shall be entitled to receive the reasonable costs of collection in addition to the amounts otherwise due, and interest at the statutory rate for unpaid civil judgments. Reasonable costs of collection shall include, without limitation, the fees and costs of the Town Attorney or of private counsel or a collection agency, but such fees and costs shall not exceed twenty five percent (25%) of the amount collected.

Section 2. Certification. The Town Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance and make not less than three copies of the adopted Code available for inspection by the public during regular business hours.

Section 3. Severability. If any article, section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance, or the standards adopted herein is held to be unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such decision will not affect the validity or constitutionality of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The Board of Trustees hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each part hereof irrespective of the fact that any one part or parts are declared unconstitutional or invalid.

Section 4. Effective Date. This ordinance shall take effect fifteen (15) days after adoption and publication as provided by Sections 3.12 and 3.14 of the Home Rule Charter and upon the approval of the Colorado Department of Transportation

HEARD AT A PUBLIC HEARING, READ, PASSED AND ADOPTED this 2nd day of May, 2023, by a vote of 6 ayes and 0 nays.
